

FIGHT CITY FILLING UP

Gov. Dickerson and Bat Nelson Are Latest Arrivals

Reno, Nev., June 28.—The honors of popular attention among today's arrivals were shared between Governor Dickerson and Battling Nelson, former champion lightweight.

"Bat" arrived on the morning train from the coast and was the center of an interested throng when he went in the hotel to register. One of the first men he met was Tex Rickard, whose career as a fight promoter began when he brought the Dane and Joe Gans together in Goldfield several years ago for the biggest purse ever offered in the prize ring up to the time Jeffries and Johnson were matched.

"Tex" greeted Nelson cordially and gazed after the lightweight admiringly as the latter went down the street.

"Don't think I ever saw 'Bat' looking any better," said Rickard. "Look at him step along. Seems lively; quick in his movements and all that. Bat is taking care of himself. He's out for a come-back at Walsart, sure thing you know. Believe me, he won't be such a shortender either."

Rickard was in an unusually cheerful mood today. He declared that his worries were over and that the fight was going to be staged on time and with everything in readiness. During the night he received many messages from the coast which assured him of good seat sales and similar assurances came from quite a number of unexpected quarters.

Reno, Nev., June 28.—Reno today is awaiting the arrival of Governor Dickerson, who, it is understood, is returning to Carson City from the coast and intends to make a brief stop here en route. Just what would be the governor's purpose in coming to this city has not been stated, but in view of his numerous denials that he would interfere in any way with the fighters, no one concerned admits the belief that it would be connected with the big contest.

The news received here last night, however, of the circulation in Chicago of another rumor that the fight would be called off, lends added interest to the expected visit of the state's chief executive. Promoter Tex Rickard is keenly anxious to see him and he is preparing to be at the station to meet his train. Rickard and Dickerson are said to be old friends, and though the promoter only a day or two ago received a telegram directly from him at Elv, giving positive assurance that he had no intention of trying to prevent the fight and delegating authority to use the message as the recipient saw fit, Rickard wants to hear from the governor's lips that the constantly revived reports of intervention are without foundation.

"I can't imagine who is doing all this 'no fight' talk," Rickard said to a group of newspaper correspondents last night during a general discussion of the Chicago rumor. "If there was the least bit of truth in it, I think it is reasonable to suppose that Nevada people would hear the news before it leaked out in San Francisco or Chicago. I am in close touch with every action against me was taken. I would certainly be one of the first to know. Of course, all these rumors are nothing but wild conversation, but they do us a lot of harm in leading many folks back east to think that maybe there is some truth in them and that they are not here to see the fight. They want their trip for nothing. That's what hurts, and that's why I'm so anxious to have Governor Dickerson come here and tell you newspapermen what he's told me in his telegram, that there is absolutely no intention on his part to attempt to call off the fight."

Rapid headway is being made on the task of building the arena. A force of 175 men are working ten hours a day to have it completed next Friday, and so marked was the progress yesterday that the contractors said that it would be quite possible to finish the building by Thursday night. The plans call for a seating capacity of about 17,000, but according to Rickard, heavy orders for tickets received from the east yesterday point to the possibility of a much larger attendance than was at first expected and it may be necessary to enlarge the structure. To be forthcoming in such a contingency, lumber for an extension will be added to the site. If an extra tier is not required, a roomy platform will be placed behind the rear top seats, encircling the entire structure with capacity of providing standing room for about 1000 people, thus bringing the capacity of the arena up to 21,000.

It is estimated that more than 50,000 feet of lumber and five tons of nails must be put into the building before it is ready for use. The Washoe county grand jury, which is supervising the work, is making frequent trips to the site in order that no precautions for the safety of spectators is overlooked.

One of the biggest orders for tickets yet received was reported last night. Residents of three towns in the north-eastern part of the state and whose combined population figures only 2,000, made a joint application, it is said, for 1,700 seats. Thus far, the greatest demand has been for the higher priced reservations.

Well known ring votaries continue to pour in daily and by the end of the week probably nine-tenths or more of fistiana's leading celebrities will be on the coast.

One of the latest arrivals is Edward McKeown of Winnipeg, who claims to have held the heavyweight championship of Canada from 1881 to 1885. McKeown spent most of his time yesterday at Jack Johnson's camp, and

ACCIDENT TO AN AUTO

One Man Killed and Six Persons Are Injured

Chicago, June 28.—One man was pinned under an automobile and a woman was seriously injured early this morning, a few miles from Hammond, Ind., when the car plunged into a creek.

The presence here of Promoter Jim Coffroth is understood to be for the purpose of securing a convenient location in one of the prominent gambling halls for the official betting commission's activities. Coffroth is promised competition by Jimmie Lawrence of Sausalito, Cal., who is now here arranging for a poolroom.

Jim Jeffries' hard workout yesterday was one of the principal topics of conversation in the hotels and saloons last night, and the opinion seemed to be shared by all who had the good fortune of being present that the big fellow was apparently in the finest possible condition and ready for the greatest battle of his career.

The utmost confidence in the outcome of the contest, is professed by the friends and followers of both fighters. The Moana Springs crew say that Jeffries is absolutely certain of his ability to maintain his title of undefeated champion and that he is so sanguine of his prospects of defeating Johnson that he is giving far less thought now to his own condition than to that of his pet namesake, terrier which is suffering from an attack of the flu.

WORLD'S MARKETS

WESTERN WOOL IS MOVING QUITE SLOWLY

Boston, June 28.—A slight improvement is noted in the local wool market but transfers are nearly all at manufacturers' prices. Business, however, is confined to fine and fine medium, scoured, territory, half and quarter blood fleeces and a little washed delaine. One quarter Ohio sells at 25 cents and fine territory 62c to 64c.

Advices from the west indicate that the new clip is moving slowly with very little inquiry on the part of local buyers.

Dealing in foreign wool is more encouraging.
